MATTER OF WAGE SCALE NOT CAUSE OF SUSPENSION OF CARS, CARMEN SAY

New Contract and Arbitration
Sought by Employees, Statement Declares.

WILLING TO ABIDE BY FINDINGS OF BOARD

Their Side of Controversy Told in Official Statement Issued Today.

The matter of a wage scale is not the primary cause of the walk-out of the employees of the North Alabama Traction company here, but the failure of the company to arbitrate the new contract with its employees according to a statement made today by President Sewell, of the carmen's union and T. A. Gooden, O. C. Norward, A. H. Petty and H. T. Baxter, members of the committee.

The second day since the walk-out began this morning without incident. No effort was made to operate the cars, which have not been run since Monday night. There was no disorder.

The following statement of their side of the controversy was issued today by President Sewell and the union committee addressed to the women and children and union men and to the citizens of Albany and Decatur:

"The wage scale is not the primary feature of the controversy with the North Alabama Traction company, but the matter of arbitration and the signing of a new contract for the current year.

"It was stipulated by our contract, which expired on September 30 that when the new contract was signed, if there was any feature was controverted, it was to be left to arbitration.

"Despite the expiration of our contract, we worked through October 4 in order to give the company ample time to adjust our differences. No steps were taken to that end, so far as we know.

"We were informed Tuesday morning that there was 'nothing to arbitrate'. Previous to that time we had asked company representatives to meet us in conference.

"According to our interpretation of our former contract we are bound to accept the findings of the board of arbitration. The matter of wages would not halt a settlement of our differences in the least. If the company cannot pay the wage schedule requested by us, and the arbitration board finds to that effect, it has but to make such a report and we will abide by its findings.

"We are awaiting the decision of the company to sign a new contract and arbitrate the matter of wages."

Statement False, President Wilson Tells Sen. Spencer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Senator Spencer, of Vermont, was accredited in press dispatches with declaring, in a Missouri address, that President Wilson had promised military aid to Roumania and Serbia, in the event of invasion.

Secretary Tumulty issued a statement to newspaper correspondents denying the existence of such a promise. Senator Spencer said he didn't believe the President made the denial.

President Wilson then wrote Senator Spencer as follows:

Senator Selden Palmer Spencer, St. Louis, Mo.:

"I have just been shown your statement that my secretary's denial of the previous statement by you that I had promised American military aid to Roumania and Serbia was issued by him without my knowledge and sanction, and that you did not for a moment believe that I had made any such denial, or that the matter was ever called to my attention by Mr. Tumulty and that I requested him to issue a denial to which you refer. I reiterate the denial. The statement you made was false. WOODROW WILSON."

Wear is Elected President Pro-Tem

REDS AND POLES PEACE PROTOCOL SIGNED, REPORTED

(International News Service)
LONDON, Oct. 6.—An armistice protocol was signed by the Russo-Polish peace envoys at Riga at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night, said a Warsaw dispatch to the Daily Express today. If the Russian and Polish envoys carry out their present plans, fighting on the great 700 mile battle line, between the Lithuanian frontier and western Ukraine will end by Sunday.

INDICTMENT OF TRIO EX-GIANTS LEGAL QUESTION

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Oct. 6.—Indictment of three former members of the New York Giants for alleged dishonesty in baseball hinges today upon the question of proper jurisdiction on the part of the grand jury here, it was authoritatively today. If legal authorities decide that the Cook county grand jury can indict the trio, true bills will be issued, it was learned, within twenty-four hours.

WORK STARTS SOON ON HIGHWAY, SAYS ANDREW PATTERSON

Work will be started soon on the Hartsville highway, A. G. Patterson, member of the state highway commission, told the members of the Albany Chamber of Commerce at the banquet last night. This road is a link of the Bee Line highway, on which work has been delayed for sometime and news that the highway will be completed as soon as possible will be received with much pleasure by North Alabama residents.

Mr. Patterson declared that a few days ago the state highway commission instructed the highway engineer to begin construction immediately of the uncompleted stretch of the Bee Line road between Albany and Hartsville. Mr. Patterson explained that so far the highway department had been unable to secure a contractor to complete this job and to avoid any further delay, they would take charge and rush the road to completion. Work will be started about October 10.

Harding is Off on Longest Trip

(International News Service)
MARION, O., Oct. 6.—Senator Warren G. Harding left Marion today on the longest speaking trip which he probably will engage in during the campaign. The trip is a five-day swing that will take him through half a dozen middle Western states and dip down into Oklahoma and Missouri, two states which the Republican campaign manager claims, but which are doubtful. In each of them there is a hot senatorial contest.

SCHOOL' NEED FOR MORE ROOM GIVEN EMPHASIS AT MEET COMMERCIAL BODY

Large Attendance Present at Banquet of the Chamber of Commerce.

MAYOR AND COUNCIL ATTEND, PAYNE SPEAKS

Good Roads Also Urged as Part of its City Building Program.

An attendance of nearly seventy-five was present at the Commercial Club dinner given last night, at 7:30 o'clock. The speaking program proved of special interest. Besides the regular guests, the new Albany city council and Mayor Payne as special guests were present, coming in a body from a council meeting which was held at six. The ladies of the Central Methodist church served the dinner which was highly complimented by the diners. Before the meal was served thanks were returned by Rev. W. P. McGlawn.

Superintendent R. W. Cowart, of the Albany Public Schools, made the first address. He called attention to the imperative need of more classroom space in order to accommodate the continually increasing number of school children.

He gave the present number in school and also the possible number, in case room were made for them in the near future. B. L. Malone spoke in an earnest manner of the many problems now confronting the city and dwelt especially on the needs of the schools. He advocated the sale of new school bonds just as quickly as there was a suitable price offered for them.

Fred A. Bloodworth spoke along similar lines and devoted some time to the need of greater cooperation as to good roads. C. D. Patterson said that he thought the Chamber of Commerce should appoint a committee of 7, as a central committee on roads for the county, with advisory committees also form the county at large, at least one for each beat in the county.

Mayor Payne followed in a thoughtful address in which he stressed the importance of cooperation in city building, calling especial attention to the value of full harmony existing between all classes.

A. G. Patterson was the next speaker, and his address was largely taken up with a discussion of the problem of good roads and how to finance their construction. Judge Troup spoke on the reation of the new legislation as regards the sale of bonds for roads.

Secretary McDaniel, closed the speaking with a few announcements. He said the next dinner of the commercial chamber would be held two weeks from last night.

The "Greatest Mother" poster, featured during the war and since as one of the most beautiful conceptions of Red Cross service, is being planned for wide use and the local chapter is ordering it in large numbers for use in stores and on signboards in these cities.

SHORT SESSION IS HELD BY COUNCIL; NO POLICE NAMED

At the special session of the new Albany city council held last evening at 6 o'clock, it was agreed that in the future its regular meetings should be held on the first and third Tuesday evenings of each month. Every councilman was in his place with the exception of Alderman Buck. Contrary to expectations the election for police officers was not held last night, but was postponed until the next regular meeting.

Instructions were given to the street committee chairman, to make thorough investigation as to the progress and inspection of the street paving now being done. The Finance Committee, was instructed to prepare and present budget to the council as soon as the city's account books could be audited.

The committee on the property of the city was directed to present an itemized account of the city's belongings at an early date. Owing to the agreement to attend the chamber of commerce dinner the council adjourned soon after 7 o'clock.

INCENDIARY FIRES IN WAKE OF POSTED WARNINGS TO STORE AND GIN OPERATORS

Hanceville Store Burned. Two Cotton Gins Also Have Been Destroyed.

PEOPLE ARE EXCITED IN MANY RURAL SECTIONS

Officials Begin Work Today on the Arson Case at Hanceville.

Sections of Morgan, Blount and Cullman counties today were aroused over the burning of the store of Taylor and Barnett at Hanceville Monday night and of two gins, one at Bailey-town, Cullman County and at Blue Springs, Blount county, according to a long distance telephone message to The Daily today from Hanceville.

Incendiary fires have followed in the wake of warning posted in several counties, telling gin operators and store owners to suspend operations until cotton goes to 40 cents a pound. The gin at Hanceville, operated by A. W. Johnson, suspended operation today, it was stated.

Store Burned
The mercantile establishment of Taylor and Barnett was a total loss. The building was entirely destroyed and practically none of the stock was saved. Mr. Barnett told The Daily long distance this morning.

The fire was discovered in the building about midnight Monday. The one story frame structure burned rapidly and within a few moments was gutted. The flames destroyed, it was said, whatever evidence there might have been of incendiaryism.

Mr. Barnett said he and his associates had not received a warning "Nightriders", who are said to have warned the Hanceville gin and several other stores in the neighborhood to close their doors.

W. J. Webb was on duty in Hanceville Monday night, guarding the gin here. Mr. Barnett stated, and indirectly was looking after the stores also. He declared there had not been a guard for the stores, but that two guards had been on duty at the gin, prior to Monday night. The fire was discovered about the same time by several persons, Mr. Barnett said.

It appeared to have been started intentionally, the owner said.

"It looked like it has been set afire," Mr. Barnett declared. "It is my opinion that the store was set afire and the general opinion here is the same.

Gin Quits

"Our store was located about 150 yards from the gin, operated by Mr. Johnson," Mr. Barnett said. "The gin was not damaged, but ceased operation today. We did not get one of the warnings from nightriders. Several notices were left in this neighborhood, however. All of the stores were open.

"I believe our store was set afire. We had no fire in the building Monday. We saved practically no stock. We managed to get an adding machine out of the building, but it was damaged.

"The people of this section are becoming excited. Mr. Johnston said he would not gin anymore cotton now. "No arrests have been made, but officers will begin work on the case immediately. No one, so far as we have learned, was seen about our store just before the fire."

FREE WORKERS ARE HARD TO DISCOVER

PRESIDENT EXPERIENCES DIFFICULTY IN FINDING MEN FOR SHIPPING BOARD

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—President Wilson's failure to appoint members of the shipping board, as reorganized under the terms of the Jones Merchant Marine act, is due partially to the fact that the President has been unable to secure any to serve without pay, it was stated at the White House today.

Congress failed to make an appropriation for salaries for the members of the new board and the President has found it difficult to secure members to take up the work without pay, it was stated.

Editorial Opinion*SAVING THE BALLOT

The Farmer-Labor party, which was expected to rip the old parties wide open in its burning, is now so frail that it can hardly emit a squeak. It never yet was able to roar. Its nomination was made too late to qualify for a party name on the California ballot and so it was understood that the electors would secure a place by the usual petition plan. But now it appears that the workers have been unable to get signatures enough to entitle them to a place on the ballot. The time was up Thursday and they were still many names behind the number needed under the law. So the ballot can be made a column shorter than was expected. That may help a little but it will still be big enough to scare a lot of us.—Los Angeles Times.

A DISCOVERY

Tennessee legislators have discovered that it is a lot easier to give something to women than it is to take it away from them after they have got it.—New York World.

REAL TRUTH

The attitude of most of us thoughtful Republicans seems to be that we're unalterably opposed to Article X, whether we know what's in it or not.—Columbus (Ohio) State Journal.

NO GENTLEMEN

The suggestion is now advanced that feminine voters be required to make affidavit as to their age. There seems to be no limit to the diabolical plots to which these anti-suffragists will stoop.—Nashville Southern Lumberman.

Just In Passing*WILSON MAY TAKE STUMP

Said Mayor Dillehay on the eve of his retirement: "If I get my pay check O. K. I hope to be in Nashville the 9th and if anybody hears Governor Cox, I expect to be one of the number."

"I believe we have the enemy going now, and I do not see how the Republicans can get up any enthusiasm for their candidate between now and election day. It is less than a month until we will know the choice of the American people, and I cannot believe that they will turn away from the safe and progressive ideas that are being advocated by Governor Cox. It would seem to me that the league of nations, as proposed by President Wilson, needs no defense, still his recent letter explaining the league and showing that Article X, does not mean that this nation could be drawn into war by other nations will have a lot of weight. There is some talk of Mr. Wilson visiting some of the large cities before the election and making a few short speeches, and I would not be surprised if he does. If President Wilson does take the stump it will be found that he has a much larger following than the Republicans like to admit," concluded the retiring Mayor of Albany.

SCHOOL SYSTEMIZED

"I have just finished a 5000 mile trip to the leading cities, including Chicago," said Henry Nebrig, "and I was especially impressed with the school system in Chicago. I have a close relative who teaches there, and she tells me that for over twenty years more and more system and efficiency is being expected of the teachers who were expected to pass at least 80% of their pupils each year, and that when less than 80% in a room passed, an investigation was held, and that if the teacher failed a second time to get her pupils to where they could pass the examinations, she was either given other work or discharged. I must say that my home town Albany, did not look good to me as to cleanliness, when I got back, as compared to the cities I saw in the North. The papers and rubbish that I saw on Second Ave. did not used to shock me, but they sure did when I got back this time. And the holes in the streets were simply awful, as compared to the perfectly smooth streets of the North."

RADICALS DRIVEN OUT

Announcement has been made that the Boiler Makers and Machinists' annual conventions have recently unseated certain radicals who sought to sit as delegates; and also by practically unanimous vote directed that no member of the Industrial Workers of the World or of the One Big Union, could hold a card in either the Machinists' Union or Boilermakers' Brotherhood. It developed on the floor of these conventions—the Boilermakers met in Kansas City, and the Machinists in Rochester, N. Y.—that in every instance members of the O. B. U. were formerly members of the I. W. W.

The radicals were found to be divided into two classes, those who were backed by unscrupulous employers and those who sought blood shed and revolution instead of peaceful evolution. Secretary Davison of the International Association of Machinists, is reported to have made an impassioned address which had great effect. He said that the chief officers of his organization had in their possession detailed information implicating the One Big Union in an effort to disrupt the conservative labor organizations.

The action of these two bodies numbering all told close to 800 members, shows that the metal trades at least are determined to be done once for all with the curse of extreme radicalism. The action of these brotherhoods is second only to that of the American Federation of Labor, which has gone on record as unalterably opposed to the Bolshevik element of labor and all their works. It is a great tribute to the common sense of the American people as a whole that radicalism has been unable to get a foothold on this continent. While the countries of Europe both great and small have been all but over run by destructive elements of society, the people of this nation have kept the even tenor of their way, turning neither to the right nor the left, but remaining squarely in the middle of the road of true progress.

HUNTING SEASON APPROACHES

The day of the hunter is rapidly approaching in Alabama and soon the dog and gun will be familiar sights in the woods and fields of the state. Modern hunters find conditions very much changed since the time of their grandparents. No longer are migratory birds and resident game unprotected by law. Stringent measures have been adopted to safeguard the game supply of the state.

It is well to memorize the following schedule of "open seasons" during which game may be hunted in Alabama:
Deer (male)—Nov. 1—Jan. 1.
Squirrel (black, gray, fox)—Nov. 1—Feb. 1.
Bear, quail (partridge)—Nov. 1—Mar. 1.
Ruffed grouse (pheasant), introduced pheasant, or other introduced game bird—Nov. 15—Dec. 31.
Wild turkey gobbler—Dec. 1—April 1.
Turtle dove—Oct. 16—Jan. 31.
Duck, goose, brant, black-bellied and golden plovers, Wilson snipe, yellowlegs, coot (mudhen)—Nov. 1—Jan. 31.
Woodcock—Nov. 1—Dec. 31.
Rail, other than coot and gallinule—Sept. 1—Nov. 30.
No open season: Does, elk (1925); hen turkeys.

KINGS IN SWITZERLAND

The right of asylum for political refugees has been highly valued in the past, and England and Switzerland have been proud of the fact that all political offenders from abroad were safe on their soil. But lately political offenders have been displaying painful ingratitude of the serpent warmed in the bosom. Revolutionary propaganda fomented in Switzerland against other countries has now and then tried its hand against Switzerland itself; and dispatches from Geneva report that the Swiss authorities are becoming a little disturbed over the activities of refugees of another kind.

Charles Hapsburg and Constantine of Greece are the most notable exiles now on Swiss soil. Both have lately been displaying unwonted affluence. Constantine is said to have been spending a good deal of money on professional propagandists and agitators, and Magyar royalists, with some Austrians, have been visiting Charles with increasing frequency. The Swiss are beginning to fear that the multitude of spies and secret agents from all nations which infested Swiss territory during the war will presently return.

America is not free from these influences; among Magyars here, there are a good many who display royalist sympathies, and the restoration of the dynasty, as a prelude or a consequence of a nationalistic war against the late subjects of Hungary would please many of those Magyars who during the war liked to represent Hungary as an oppressed nation. The recent visit of Mr. Charles Huszar was happily a brief one, for the suspicion that the gentleman's interests were not wholly in raising money for the Red Cross was widespread among the neighbors of Hungary who were on our side in the war. Propagandists of Constantine, however, are still going up and down the country endeavoring to turn the Greek population of America against the man who has done more for Greece than any statesman since Themistocles. The Greek general elections come on November 7; if the Greeks are tired of hearing Venizelos called "the Just" we shall know it then. But apparently the partisans of Constantine have less confidence in the elections than in intrigue.—New York Times.

Times do change. A few yesterdays ago the mother-in-laws were the goats in all good jokes. Booze and profiteering landlords have taken that place.

Luke McLuke informs us that A. Lady, of Greenville, Tenn., is a gent. We also learned some years ago that Christian Girl is a rather prominent male resident of our United States. You can't always tell by a name.

Cleveland put the Indian sign on Brooklyn in the first.

King Cotton appears to be having the same trouble a number of other monarchs have been bothered with recently.

Campaigning for the presidency as Governor Cox does it, at least would provide excellent training for a commercial salesman.

prior to its burning.

"We were informed here that two gins, one at Bailey town and one at Blue Springs were burned Monday night. Both were said to have received warnings."

Interest In Meet

The warnings of "Nightriders" and the burning of the gin and stores lends additional interest to the meeting of the Morgan County branch of the American Cotton Association, which convenes here Saturday.

Otto Moebes, Secretary-treasurer of the county branch, in a statement issued several days ago, condemned the acts of violence against gin and store owners. He expressed the opinion that the cotton association will take steps to also condemn the action of the "Nightriders".

The cotton association recently adopted 40 cents as a "fair price" for cotton, but is attempting to obtain that price by peaceable and legitimate means, Mr. Moebes declared.

HONOR AND LOVE
By John McCormack

It is natural to think of the expectant mother's influence upon the unborn babe. Her food, her habits, her hygiene, and even the condition of her mind, all have a part in determining the well-being or ill-being of her infant before birth.

No woman awaiting the joys of coming motherhood should allow the days to pass without giving nature a helping hand—because the conditions of pending motherhood, existing as they do, over a protracted period of months, create almost a new state of being for a woman.

Just as she prepares herself for it, so will most favorable conditions prevail when her child is born.

MOTHER'S FRIEND is a balm for the nerves, an intensely penetrating lubricant that softens the muscles, relaxes tension of the delicate organism involved in maternity, and prepares the way for an easier, quicker and practical delivery.

THE "OLD RELIABLE" THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT

White Haired Alabama Lady Says She Has Seen Medicines Come and Go But The "Old Reliable" Thedford's Black-Draught Came and Stayed.

Dutton, Ala.—In recommending Thedford's Black-Draught to her friends and neighbors here, Mrs. T. F. Parks, a well-known Jackson County lady, said: "I am getting up in years; my head is pretty white. I have seen medicines and remedies come and go but the old reliable came and stayed. I am talking of Black-Draught, a liver medicine we have used for years—one that can be depended upon and one that will do the work."

"Black-Draught will relieve indigestion and constipation if taken right, and I know for I tried it. It is the best thing I have ever found for the full, uncomfortable feeling after meals. Sour stomach and sick headache can be relieved by taking Black-Draught. It aids digestion, also assists the liver in throwing off impurities. I am glad to recommend Black-Draught, and do, to my friends and neighbors."

Thedford's Black-Draught is a standard household remedy with a record of over seventy years of successful use. Every one occasionally needs something to help cleanse the system of impurities. Try Black-Draught. Insist upon Thedford's, the genuine.

BLAMES LONLINESS FOR HER DIVORCE

"HAPPY UNTIL HE WENT TO FRANCE" WIFE TELLS THE JUDGE
 (International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—Though she has obtained an interlocutory decree of divorce from Bernard Granville, actor, his second wife, who was Eleanor Christie, and herself of the stage, declares she loves him still. Her main regret is that she abandoned her professional career to keep house, for, she confessed, lonely evenings at home helped to drive her to the courts.

Sitting in her handsome apartment at No. 103 West Fifty-fourth street and holding in her hand her favorite photograph of Granville, she told how their craft of matrimony had gone on the rocks.

"We were happy as two turtle doves until he went to France," she said. "Something in France changed him, made him harder, sterner and colder to me. I don't know what it was."

Gave Up Stage
 "When we were married I gave up my career. I cooked dinner for him kept house and, oh, I took such a joy in keeping up our little nest. But I feel that if I had stayed on the stage and kept up other interests we would still be happily married."

"A woman should not give up her career. She should have outside interests. I know that at first I liked to stay at home and keep things ready for him, but during the last year in the lonely evenings, why, I've just been through all sorts of things. A woman should never be left alone to brood. She imagines all sorts of things."

Mrs. Granville was granted her decree by Supreme Court Justice Arthur S. Tompkins, of Rockland County. Granville's first wife, Mrs. Dorothy Granville, divorced him in 1916. They were married on May 18, 1910, at Toronto, Canada. In her suit she named Eleanor Christie, who was then playing the part of Excitement in a play called "Experience." Eleanor Christie and Granville were married in Newark on June 2, 1917. The second wife said she would resume her maiden name and return to the stage.

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND THE FLU

First Step in Treatment Is a Brisk Purgative With Calotabs, the Purified and Refined Calomel Tablets That Are Nauseless, Safe and Sure.

Doctors have found by experience that no medicine for colds and influenza can be depended upon for full effectiveness until the liver is made thoroughly active. That is why the first step in the treatment is the new, nausealess calomel tablet called Calotabs, which are free from the sickening and weakening effects of the old style calomel. Doctors also point out the fact that an active liver may go a long way towards preventing influenza and is one of the most important factors in enabling the patient to successfully withstand an attack and ward off pneumonia.

One Calotab on the tongue at bed time, with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with your eating, pleasure or work. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified, and you are feeling fine, with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Druggists sell Calotabs only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. Your money will be cheerfully refunded if you do not find them delightful.—(Adv.)

PRICE RECOVERS AFTER POOR START

BETTER FEELING IS REFLECTED AMONG LOAN TRADERS ON GOTHAM MARKET

(International News Service)
 NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—Immediately following an opening decline of six to twenty-five points, due to Southern selling, fine weather in the belt and poor cables, the cotton market turned strong and active on support from trade interests and local coverings today.

Prices quickly recovered their early decline and sold about five points above last night's close, reflecting a considerably better feeling among loan traders on the idea that the market was over sold. The main hindrance to more aggressive buying was the belief that the weekly weather and crop report at noon would be favorable again.

HEALTH COURSE TO BEGIN SOON

Are you just keeping up to avoid funeral expenses? I'd die and be over the misery if I were you, or, what would be better take the course of lessons in health building as based on scientific combination of foods as prescribed by Prof. Chas. B. McFerrin, who is now in Albany.

Certain foods actually explode in the stomach and bowels when wrongly combined causing much misery.

Such conditions cause pus in the roots of teeth and tonsils making many an operation necessary which might be avoided.

The course of instruction will be explained to you in your own home without obligation on your part.

Broncho Rider
Now Motor Cop

(International News Service)
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 6.—It's a far cry from riding a broncho with the Texas Rangers in the border to patrolling the streets of Kansas City on a motorcycle as a member of the police force, but that was the jump made by George E. McGee, thirty-two years old, who has been added to the motorcycle squad.

McGee also is a linguist of no mean ability. He speaks and writes the Chinese and Spanish languages. He enlisted in the army in June, 1917, and went overseas with the Forty-second (Rainbow) Division. He was discharged last July.

"I was born on an English ship, under an American flag in Chinese waters," McGee said in his application for appointment. "My father was a United States Government attaché at Canton, China, and remained there eleven years after I was born."

ELEPHANT SUBSTITUTES NOW FOR THE "OLD APPLE TREE"

And So Fair Rider With Big Circus Executes An Act Not Billed On Program

How would you like to let "the old cat die" from the jaws of six-ton elephant? According to Victoria Davenport, prettiest of the scores of pretty ladies who ride on the program of the mammoth Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Combined Shows, it is the greatest sport imaginable. The fair equestrienne performs the "stunt" with Baldy, who, next to the famous "Alice," is the mightiest of all the great herd of elephants.

Miss Davenport has not gotten over the days when one of the greatest joys in life was to swing from the bough of an old apple tree. But apple trees are not often found on circus lots, and so she hitches an improvised swing into Baldy's mouth. As she swings back and forth the faithful old fellow gives forth grunts which Miss Davenport will tell you is the pachyderm way of singing, "Byelow Baby, in the Tree-Top." In the meantime, during the performance, Baldy is one of the leading actors in that greatest of all innovations in animal subjugation — the assembling in "pyramid" and other formations of six times as many elephants as have ever before been presented at one time.

This enormous elephant act will be but one of the many super-attractions to be seen when the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Combined Shows exhibit here. The program will open with a gigantic pageant. This brilliant presentation, edifying hundreds of characters, depicting the best-loved tales from nursery and fairy-tale lore, will be followed by more than two hours of arenic displays, which will present the pick of all the talent that has in past years made Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey circuses the foremost amusement institutions in America. In addition will be seen acts which, released by the termination of the war, have never before been seen in America. The circus is to exhibit here Tuesday, Oct. 12.

Gritty Tooth Pastes
No Longer Necessary

Wonderful New Kind of Liquid Dentifrice, Attacks the Cause of Tooth and Mouth Troubles Without Scratching the Teeth or Tearing Gums.

Gritty tooth-pastes act like sandpaper on your teeth. Dentifrice that rely on their abrasive qualities to cleanse the teeth, scratch the enamel and prepare the way for the germs of decay. And because of their coarseness, they cannot penetrate to the small crevices where infection starts.

Dentists everywhere are warning their patients not to use these pastes on their teeth. Writing in the Dental Cosmos, Dr. F. D. Miller says that: "With some of the much extolled preparations on the market, it is quite easy by applying the brush to cut the tooth half through exposing the pulp inside of two hours."

After careful research and experiment a prominent oral hygienist has developed a wonderful new kind of liquid dentifrice. This preparation is now on the market sold under the name Steroline. All leading druggists carry it.

Made from an approved and accepted formula, dentists everywhere are recommending this wonderful preparation. Hundreds of enthusiastic users have found that Steroline not only cleans the teeth thoroughly, but that it penetrates to every tiny crack and gum pocket, attacking the very cause of disease and decay.

Steroline is a mouth wash and tooth cleanser combined. A few drops on your brush used in the regular way each day, make strong white teeth and leave the whole mouth cool and refreshed. And its prophylactic qualities make it a sure preventive against disease.

Get a bottle from your druggist. Try it five days. If at the end of that time you are not completely satisfied return the card-board box to your dealer, and your money will be cheerfully refunded.
